

Dear Members,

Apply or nominate someone to join the new EOHHS advisory council. This is a unique opportunity to advise and contribute to the development of the Health Care Aide Career Pathways curriculum while helping shape the future of this transformative initiative.

Originally introduced during the AL-Industry stakeholder engagement and listening session on October 22, 2024, this initiative is now entering its next phase. For more details about this advisory opportunity, including participation guidelines and contact information for questions, see the information provided below.

FROM: Michael Kelleher, EOHHS
RE: Opportunity for an EOHHS HCA Curriculum Advisory Council

For those who were able to participate in one of our stakeholder engagement and listening sessions on the Health Care Aide Career Pathway Initiative, thank you. I wanted to briefly make you all aware an opportunity to apply or nominate someone for a new EOHHS advisory council to support the Commonwealth's efforts to create a new curriculum and training program to support this new credential, the Health Care Aide. EOHHS is seeking representatives from educational institutions, health care providers, patients, workers, the direct care community, trade and labor groups, advocacy and patient groups, clinical training experts, and experts in workforce development, with a focus on direct care worker training and workforce supports for an HCA Curriculum Advisory Committee. This Committee will be charged with reviewing and advising the state in its design and development of the HCA Curriculum and Training offerings.

For those interested in nominating or applying, please refer to this site: COMMBUYS - Bid Solicitation for more information about the Advisory Council and to complete a Nomination Form. All submissions must be made by January 6, 2025, no later than 5:00 PM.
